Unauthorized Energy Use

1. Preamble

Energy usage that is not recorded by a Measurement Canada approved meter, and/or where the Person using energy does not have a Distribution Services Agreement with Newmarket-Tay Power Distribution Ltd. (NT POWER) is considered unauthorized energy usage. This includes, but not limited to, fraud, abuse, theft of power, and energy diversion.

2. Disconnection

NT POWER reserves the right to disconnect any Person, or Consumer, for causes, not limited to, energy diversion, fraud, or abuse on the part of the Person or Consumer. Reconnection may not occur until the Consumer or Person rectifies the condition and provides full payment to NT POWER of estimated energy used, all costs incurred by NT POWER arising from unauthorized energy use, including inspections, repair costs, agent fees, and the cost of disconnection and reconnection. Refer to NT POWERCOS-240-03 Deposits.

3. Criminal Code

Unauthorized use of energy is a criminal offence, and the York Regional Police Services will be notified of all occurrences.
